

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 5th March 2025 / Lot 3529

LOT 3529

A small collection of 19th century and later gun and shooting related items, including two similar percussion pistols with round barrels, barrel length 19.5cm, one with steel mounts, the other with brass mounts (both with alterations and conversions), two further percussion pocket pistols (both with repairs, conversions and alterations), and a small group of Continental powder dispensers.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

3529. Guns all appear to function half and full lock. All have extensive restoration, some later parts, screws etc.

Created: Mon, 3rd March 2025 15:50