

Clocks and Barometers / Thursday, 6th March 2025 / Lot 1163

LOT 1163

A George III mahogany longcase clock with eight day movement striking on a bell, the 12-inch brass breakarch dial with strike/silent indicator to arch above a chapter ring with black Roman hour numerals framing a chinoiserie engraved centre with subsidiary seconds and date aperture and inscribed 'Story & Howell Yarmouth', all cornered with cast and pierced scroll spandrels, the hood with glazed door and fluted columns above an arched trunk door, fluted cut corner columns and panelled base on bracket feet, height 235cm, with pendulum, two weights and winding key. Note: Storey & Howell are recorded Norfolk clockmakers working in Great Yarmouth pre-1778.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1163. The clock and movement are more than likely a marriage. The seatboard fits quite nicely with no padding up of the cheeks. However, there is a significant gap between the edge of the dial and the hood masking (see image 2 online), which would suggest a marriage.
