LOT 339

A pair of George III silver salts of cushion form with gadrooned rims, on ball feet, London 1811 by Alice & George Burrows II, total weight 123.2g, length 9.2cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

339. Generally ok condition commensurate with age, but both with typical surface scratches and wear, and a little tired in places. One has a small dent to one side, definition to rims a bit worn and slight misshaping and also misshaping to feet.

Hallmarks are good and readable.

Glass liners in good order.
