LOT 1025

A Tibetan gilt bronze figure of a medicine Buddha, 18th century, modelled seated in dhyanasana holding a medicine pot in his left hand, wearing an ornately trimmed robe, his hair tightly curled and rising to a domed usnisa, on a double lotus throne, height 15.4cm. Provenance: the Alain Presencer Collection. Note: a medicine Buddha was an important bodhisattva in Tibetan Buddhism, who represents the healing aspects of all Buddhas.

Estimate: £600 - £800

Condition Report

1025. Generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs, typical surface scratches and wear. Some rubbing to gilt. Blue pigment visible to tightly curled hair. Good crisp definition to decoration.
