

Single-Owner Collections / Thursday, 10th April 2025 / Lot 1028

LOT 1028

A Japanese gilt bronze three-pronged vajra (sankosho), 17th/18th century, the central lotus moulded knob inset with a turquoise bead to each side, flanked by three-pronged terminals, length 13.5cm.

Provenance: the Alain Presencer Collection. Note: for an illustration of a similar example, see The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York, object number: 1987.151.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

1028. Good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear, but no significant damage or repairs.

Created: Mon, 7th April 2025 14:55