

Single-Owner Collections / Thursday, 10th April 2025 / Lot 1020

LOT 1020

A large Thai brown patinated bronze figure of Buddha, 17th/18th century, modelled seated in dhyanasana on a curved triangular pedestal, with hands held in bhumisparsa mudra, the face with serene expression and elongated earlobes, his hair rising to a domed usnisa and flame surmount, height 120cm. Provenance: the Alain Presencer Collection.

Estimate: £2,000 - £4,000

---

Condition Report

1020. The figure appears to be in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Good even brown patina. Typical light surface scratches and wear. See images online.

Created: Tue, 8th April 2025 12:02