

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thursday, 17th April 2025 / Lot 2501

LOT 2501

A fine and rare European gilded copper tazza, probably late 16th/early 17th century, the underside of the top and the footrim inscribed 'CHOBRE' in black lettering, the top finely worked with a central raised boss decorated in relief with a hunter with spear and dog, within two continuous bands of hunting scenes, including men on horseback, dogs, boars, bear, bull, deer, wolf, goat, lion and other creatures, the screw-off stand similarly decorated with two bands of creatures, height 5cm, diameter 28cm.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

---

Condition Report

2501. The general condition is very good with light wear to the highpoints of the decoration. Some minor dinks to the edges and the footrim is slightly misshapen, but generally it is in exceptional condition.

Created: Tue, 15th April 2025 09:33