

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1608

LOT 1608

A Moorcroft Pottery vase for Liberty & Co., circa 1910, decorated with Wisteria against a pale lemon ground, brown printed Liberty mark to base with green painted signature and impressed shape number, height 23cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

Small area of professional restoration to the outer top rim edge - very well executed and only really noticeable with a UV light.

Otherwise no crazing but there are small scratches to the yellow ground overall.

No chips.

There is some black pitting to the glaze - a manufacturing issue.

Created: Tue, 22nd April 2025 10:25