

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1625

LOT 1625

A Moorcroft Pottery lustre vase made for Liberty & Co., circa 1910, decorated with grapes and vine leaves against a pale green lustre ground, brown printed Liberty mark to base with green painted signature, height 15cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Overall crazing to the glaze.

There are some manufacturing blemishes to the lustre ground and some small scratches to the glaze primarily on the widest part of the body commensurate with age and handling.

Created: Tue, 22nd April 2025 10:49