

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1477

LOT 1477

A Limoges Sèvres style gilt metal mounted inkstand, early 20th century, the porcelain body of bombe shape painted with pink roses, the gilt metal top fitted with two inkwells with acanthus leaf hinged lids, a stamp holder and five pen apertures, length 19.5cm, together with a pair of clear cut glass lustres hung with prismatic drops, height 18cm, and a Hukin & Heath plate mounted cut glass spirit barrel and stopper (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A PARTIAL CONDITION REPORT ONLY DETAILING THE SPIRIT BARREL - 22/04/25

Spirit Barrel - the tap has been broken away from the main body and visibly glued back into position with associated bad cracks to the main body and small areas of loss around the initial break. Matched stopper.

Created: Tue, 22nd April 2025 16:00