

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1428

LOT 1428

A set of eight Dresden porcelain figures depicting Napoleon and other French military commanders, late 19th/early 20th century, comprising Murat, Suchet, Mortier, Exelmans, La Fayette, Dumouriez and Davoust, each dressed in military uniform standing on a titled square base relief moulded and heightened in gilt with an eagle to each corner, the underside of the bases with inscribed details relating to each figure, tallest 26cm, together with a similar military figure holding the French tricolour flag.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

La Fayette - glued repair to sword beneath hilt.

Suchet - missing sword

Mortier - broken and glued through shoulders/top of torso

Figure holding flag - missing sword, missing left index finger and tiny nicks to two other fingers on this hand.

Created: Tue, 22nd April 2025 16:27