

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1579

LOT 1579

A Lucie Rie and Hans Coper studio pottery plate, mid 20th century, with brown manganese glaze and fine incised line to the rim edge, impressed seal marks to base, diameter 18.5cm (small chips to rim edge).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

Two chips to upper rim edge, 1.5cm long by 0.5cm wide and approx 0.5cm square.

In addition there is an approx 2cm long haircrack to the rim edge which has a tiny spot of glaze loss along its length.

Created: Tue, 22nd April 2025 16:42