

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1596

LOT 1596

Eleven Copenhagen porcelain Saxon Flower pattern side plates, the wrythen and basketweave moulded rims with gilt dentil edges, painted with Meissen style flowers, underglaze blue wave mark to bases with green painted numerals, diameter 14.3cm, together with a matching milk jug, height 11.8cm, eight Royal Copenhagen floral painted teacups and saucers, eleven Copenhagen plates painted with fruits and flowers within gilt banded rims, average diameter 22cm, a large Copenhagen white glazed circular platter with gilt dentil rim, diameter 33cm, and a Gustavsberg Guldstjärna oval platter, designed by Kage, length 38.8cm (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

11 Saxon Flower side plates - each in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Milk jug - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Floral teacups and saucers - factory seconds, one saucer badly chipped and cracked otherwise all in good condition. Minor wear.

Fruit and Flower plates - two chipped. The others are fundamentally in good order with no damage but they are all very worn (to varying degrees) and they are not a set as such as they are slightly different sizes and shapes.

White circular platter - in good condition.

Gustavsberg - excessive knife scratches and wear to gilt rim. Otherwise ok.

Please see images 11 and 12 on our website for details of the 11 fruit and flower plates.

Created: Thu, 24th April 2025 10:07