

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1568

LOT 1568

A Villeroy & Boch Amapola pattern part service, comprising two tureens and covers, sauceboat and stand, eleven plates 26.5cm diameter, ten plates 21cm diameter, eight soup plates, four dessert bowls, four cereal bowls, eleven tea plates 16.8cm diameter, seven mugs, six cups and saucers, large jug, small jug, seven ramekins, salt and pepper, sugar bowl and cover and a pair of candlesticks, together with a French faience tureen and cover with naturalistic pear knop, length 24cm (some faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

One 26.5cm diameter plate with chip to underside rim edge.

One 21cm diameter plate with chip to underside rim edge.

6 soup plates with chipping to the footrims.

One cup chipped and cracked with glued repair.

One 16.8cm diameter plate with minor chip.

One tureen cover cracked.

Otherwise the items in the service have no damage or repairs.

Please note though - you can tell the service has overall been well used as although the decoration is not worn the pieces are heavily scratched when viewed in the right light.

Faience Tureen - typical glaze losses/fritting to the extremities, some hairlines visible to the interior. The flange of the cover has a sizable chip.

Created: Thu, 24th April 2025 11:44