

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1610

LOT 1610

An Art Deco Moorcroft Pottery Waving Corn or Wheat pattern vase, 1920s/30s, the green shaded body with blue edged triangular panels of geometric design alternating with ears of wheat, impressed marks to base with facsimile signature, blue painted initials and original applied paper labels, height 20cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks or restoration.

Typical overall fine crazing to the glaze.

There is a tiny glaze chip to the footrim approx 3mm long which is not visible when the vase is placed on a flat surface. Please see image 3 on our website.

Created: Thu, 24th April 2025 12:03