

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1581

LOT 1581

A French faience jug by Fourmaintraux Courquin, late 19th century, in the form of a cat, the end of its tail forming the spout, with overall blue sponged decoration, painted mark to base, height 29cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no repairs or significant damage.

There is minor typical fritting to the glaze extremities, only to be expected, nothing untoward or terrible.

Created: Tue, 29th April 2025 10:25