

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1412

LOT 1412

A Royal Copenhagen white glazed vase, dated 1946, designed by Hans Henrik Hansen, the oval body relief moulded to one side with a nude figure of Eve opposing a nude figure of Adam, shape No. 4117, underglaze blue wave mark to base with green printed and impressed factory marks, height 22cm, together with two Continental white glazed figures, tallest 35cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Vase - some surface scratches to glaze, but otherwise in good condition.

Tallest white glazed figure - in good condition overall.

White glazed nude - marked as a factory second and with noticeable manufacturing blemishes to the glaze.

Created: Tue, 29th April 2025 16:08