

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1600

LOT 1600

A Coalport porcelain part dessert service, painted by Stephen Lawrance, circa 1839-45, pattern No. 4/412, with botanical studies within an apple green ground rim reserved with three foliate panels framed with low relief gilt enriched scrolls, the rim edges with cream and gilt low relief foliate scroll detail, comprising ten plates, diameter 24cm, and four low stands, painted pattern No. to some pieces (minor faults).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

Overall in good condition with no repairs or significant damage to the plates.

Typical light wear overall commensurate with age and handling.

Some crazing to three of the plates, otherwise each in good condition.

One stand crazed with haircrack.

One stand with long haircrack lines but not crazed.

One stand crazed with some very minor stain spots.

One stand with haircrack and minor crazing.

Created: Wed, 30th April 2025 11:10