

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 1st May 2025 / Lot 1437

LOT 1437

An Art Deco Saint-Clement model of a Basset Hound, 1930s, designed by Charles Lemanceau, the dog standing four square with white crackle glaze, impressed marks, length 27cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no repairs or restoration.

Overall fine crazing to the glaze.

There is some minor glaze flaking to the toes of the back left foot.

Created: Wed, 30th April 2025 16:02