

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 14th May 2025 / Lot 418

LOT 418

A late 19th century Indian Kutch silver flask and stopper, of bulbous form with cylindrical neck and scroll handle, with all-over engraved foliate scrolls, the front with shield shaped cartouche monogram engraved, weight 432.2g, height 18cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

418. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Numerous dents to the body. Engraved monogram to shield cartouche. Stopper fits well and handle is good. Decoration is generally good and still fairly crisp.

Created: Fri, 9th May 2025 11:06