LOT 2301

A pair of late 19th century French opaline blue glass scent bottles with overlaid gilt metal scrolls and inset with floral painted porcelain plaques, the hinged lids inset with engraved mother-of-pearl, height 14.5cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

2301. One of the bottles has a crack to the mother-of-pearl inset lid and also the stopper seems to be stuck in place. Otherwise both have some minor knocks to the gilt metal mounts. One has some glue residue visible where the footrim is attached.
