

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 26th June 2025 / Lot 1159

LOT 1159

A Chinese blue and white porcelain vase, late 19th/early 20th century, of baluster form, painted with birds, rocks and flowers, height 26cm, together with a small group of Chinese blue and white porcelain, two Chinese carved soapstone figures, heights 23cm and 32cm, and four Japanese small bronze vases (some faults).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Baluster vase with birds, rocks and flowers - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Jar and cover - indistinct starcrack to side of body, cover with fritted chipping to whole of top rim edge and minor chipping to lower rim edge.

Cover with Buddhistic lion finial - whole circumference of edge significantly fritted and with some chips.

Two small blue and white vases - both broken and visibly glued/restored, one more significantly than the other.

Larger soapstone figure - permanently fitted to wood base with a screw fixing, two filled holes to middle of back, sizable chip to clothing at back edge of figure and small losses/scratches/chips to extremities of figure otherwise.

Smaller soapstone figure - in good condition overall with no significant damage or repairs. Small bruise to very top of head and a couple of indistinct chips.

4 bronze vases - taller pair with slightly misshapen bases, otherwise each OK.

Created: Mon, 16th June 2025 11:13