LOT 1091

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

1091 - Generally good condition. Typical light surface scratches and wear to patina. Possibly a small repair to finial on top of hat. Bit dusty and dirty so would certainly benefit from a clean. Typical light wear to gilt face and blue hair. Typical minor knocks and nicks around base. No apparent significant damage or repairs. Weight 1651.5g.
