LOT 1029

A Sino-Tibetan brown patinated bronze figure of Abhedha, 17th/18th century, modelled seated with hands held together in front of the chest, wearing a celestial scarf and long robe, on a double lotus throne, height 16.4cm. Provenance: the Alain Presencer Collection. Note: in Tibetan Buddhism, Abhedha is one of the sixteen arhats, who are important figures, known for their enlightenment and dedication to protecting the dharma.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1029 - Generally good condition commensurate with age. Possibly a small repair to one of the loops on the scarf above the right shoulder. Otherwise no significant damage. Typical light surface scratches and minor wear to brown patina.
