

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 26th June 2025 / Lot 1121

LOT 1121

A large pair of Chinese Canton enamel bottle vases, 20th century, each baluster body reserved with three panels of peony, chrysanthemum and butterflies within pale blue scroll borders against a ground of dense flowers and foliage, between repeating pattern borders, height 45cm, with wood stands, together with a similar saucer dish, painted with birds and prunus within a scalloped rim, diameter 22cm, and a chocolate brown ground quatrelobe shaped box and cover, length 17cm.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1121 - Large pair of vases ♦ first in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, the second is generally in good condition but has an enamel flake approximately 1.5cm long by 0.5cm wide to the lower section of the neck just above the join to the main body ♦ the join has a minor bruise and some cracking along its length, all only really noticeable on close inspection.

Box and cover ♦ in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Dish ♦ 3 areas of enamel loss to the upper rim edge with associated hairlines, the rim underside has some minor chips.

Created: Mon, 16th June 2025 15:29