LOT 1295

A Chinese famille rose porcelain bottle vase, mark of Yongzheng but later Qing dynasty, the globular body and slightly flared narrow cylindrical neck painted with a monkey up a gnarled pine tree above two spotted deer, two red-capped cranes, two bats, two magpies, rocks, flowers and lingzhi fungus, underglaze blue seal mark to base, height 34cm (rivet repaired neck).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

Neck of vase broken away from body in at least 10 pieces and visibly glued and riveted back into position - there are some minor losses along the break lines and one 'hole' approx 2cm by 1.5cm which has been filled or 'made-up'. Please see the images on our website using the zoom function.

Otherwise in good condition.
