LOT 1297

A small group of Chinese blue and white export porcelain, Qianlong period, comprising a tea caddy and cover, painted with coastal landscape, heights 13.2cm, a similarly decorated milk jug, height 13cm (repaired handle), and a two-handled cup, height 9.7cm (chip and hairline to rim).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Tea caddy and cover - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Gilt finial with two burst air bubbles to gilt finish - a manufacturing issue.

Jug - handle broken in two places (at lower handle terminal and uppermost point) and glued back into position.

Very short and indistinct hairline to spout, hardly noticeable, otherwise in good condition.

Cup - vertical crack to rim approx 4cm long, chip to upper rim edge approx 1cm long, flat chip to outer edge of foot approx 0.5cm square and minor rubbed fritting to handles.
