LOT 1359

A Chinese bronze bell and hardwood stand, late Qing dynasty, the bell with dragon loop surmount above panels of flowers and six-character mark of Wanli to one side, the hardwood stand with pierced scroll decoration, height 53cm, with beater.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1359 - The bell is in generally good condition. It is a bit dirty, with typical light surface scratches and wear, it would certainly benefit from a clean.

Hardwood stand in generally good condition. Structurally sound. Tope section has been broken at some point and is now screwed down securely. Some signs of glue residue used to keep it in secure order.
