

Single-Owner Collections / Thursday, 26th June 2025 / Lot 1052

LOT 1052

A Tibetan plated and copper gau (amulet box or portable shrine), 19th century, of oval form with embossed foliate decoration and central coral boss, length 10.3cm (faults), together with a plated hinged bangle with lobed decoration, marked with arrow and circular motif to interior, diameter 8.7cm. Provenance: the Alain Presencer Collection.

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

Amulet box - all over wear, a number of small splits and holes around edge, splits to handles, copper back panel with repair, wear and splits.

Bangle - in generally good condition with surface scratches and wear, hinge is good, closes tightly, and securing screw working well.

Created: Thu, 19th June 2025 10:47