

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 9th July 2025 / Lot 329

LOT 329

A Victorian plated two-handled vase, the tapering cylindrical body cast with fruiting vines, flanked by similarly cast handles, fitted with a cranberry glass liner, height 13cm, and a plated three-bottle tantalus with Hobbs & Co locking mechanism and central carrying handle, with beaded decoration, on bracket feet, fitted with three square cut glass decanters and stoppers, two plated decanter labels and a silver 'Port' decanter label, length 33cm, height 30.5cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

329. Two-handled vase - cranberry glass liner in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Plated body in generally good condition with no significant damage. Typical wear to plate.

Tantalus - overall wear to the plate. Key/lock is not working so the top does not open at present and it appears that the key is not original. Glass decanters look ok, but unable to inspect them properly, they are all matching though.
