

Wristwatches and Pocket Watches / Thursday, 24th July 2025 / Lot 1074

LOT 1074

A First World War period silver circular cased trench style gentleman's wristwatch with unsigned jewelled manual wind movement, the white enamelled dial with Arabic hour numerals and subsidiary seconds, import mark London 1914, case diameter 3.3cm (missing lugs to one side), together with a smaller silver cased wristwatch, a silver curved rectangular watch case, import mark London 1927, case width 2.6cm, and three other gentlemen's wristwatches.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1074. Silver trench style watch - hairlines to dial, one lug missing, does not run.

Smaller silver case - hairlines to dial, winds and adjusts smoothly and it is currently running but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Kienzle - typical wear and scratches. Few marks to dial. Winds and adjusts smoothly and it is currently running but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Technos - typical wear and scratches. Winds and adjusts smoothly and is currently running but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Chrome cased watch - wear to case, glass and dial. Does not wind or run.

Silver case - typical wear and back a little loose.

Created: Mon, 14th July 2025 16:44