

Clocks and Barometers / Thursday, 24th July 2025 / Lot 1155

LOT 1155

A Victorian ebonized bracket clock with eight day twin fusee movement striking hours and half hours on a gong, the backplate signed 'Barraud & Lunds 14 Bishops Gate within Cornhill, London' and numbered '7275', the 6½-inch silvered breakarch dial with subsidiary pendulum regulation to arch, strike/silent lever to side, black Roman hour numerals and foliate scrolls, signed 'Barraud & Lunds London 7275', the arched case with lacquered brass handle above a moulded pediment, glazed front and back doors and lacquered brass pierced scale fret panels, on a moulded plinth base, height 38cm, with pendulum. Note: Barraud & Lunds was the final iteration of one of Britain's finest clockmaking firms of the 19th century. The partnership of the Barraud family and John Richard Lund was founded in 1838. In 1869 Lund's two sons joined the firm, becoming Barraud & Lunds.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1155. Clock is in generally good clean condition. Typical light surface scuffs and wear, but no significant damage or repairs.

Dial has typical wear and some marks, but generally good order.

Both trains wind smoothly, strike mechanism in good working order, and the clock is currently running but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

Created: Tue, 15th July 2025 13:02