

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 13th August 2025 / Lot 4104

LOT 4104

A fine Second World War period Japanese katana with curved single-edged blade, blade length 65cm, showing fine even hamon, cast bronze openwork tsuba and tape bound fishskin grip with part-hidden flowerhead menuki and partially gilt openwork kabuto-gane with colonel's sword knot in red and brown, with blackened metal scabbard with partially gilt bronze fittings.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

4104. Overall a very fine sword. Some small splitting to fish skin grip around peg hole, minor soiling to tape bound grip, paint/lacquer scuff to scabbard.

Blade and tang not signed or engraved.

Created: Thu, 7th August 2025 15:45