

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 13th August 2025 / Lot 4012

LOT 4012

A late 18th century flintlock pocket pistol by Cowper, with turn-off steel barrel, barrel length 6cm, box-shaped lock with flower garland decoration and prick-marked borders, sliding safety and wood grip.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

4012. Overall an honest clean gun. Odd patch of active rust, bruises to grip more considerable to butt area. Action works and is nice and tight, full and half locks.

Created: Fri, 8th August 2025 12:15