

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 13th August 2025 / Lot 4059

LOT 4059

An 18th century brass flintlock pistol by Stanton, London, with turn-off steel cannon barrel, barrel length 6.5cm, foliate engraved locks and white metal wire inlaid grips (action part-defective, overall some wear, heavy old restoration at some point now toning out).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

4059. Overall old restoration, evidence of heavy cleaning.

Action works but very sloppy and needs attention.

Grip shrinkage evident, losses to inlay on grip in places.

Barrel unscrews but is tight.

Overall quite a tired gun.
