

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 13th August 2025 / Lot 4064

LOT 4064

A Victorian 1845 pattern infantry officer's sword by Sherlock & Co, 15 King Street, Covent Garden, London, with single-edged blade, blade length 80cm, etched with foliate designs and indistinct monogram, cast brass gothic hilt with 'VR' cypher and wire bound fishskin grip, with steel scabbard, later black painted (overall old cleaning, generally a little tired throughout).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

4065 - Hilt is very slightly loose, probably cleaned in the past as blade looks and feels worn. Scabbard with multiple dents and creases scabbard tip worn. Probably had a long life as a working piece.

Created: Tue, 12th August 2025 13:10