

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 13th August 2025 / Lot 4099

LOT 4099

A rare early 19th century Indian tulwar khanda sword with tapered expanding blade with diamond-form tip, blade length 67.5cm, part-pierced and with part-serrated cutting edge, and typical cruciform hilt with all-over fine and intricate damascened foliate decoration.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

4099 - Generally a nice honest piece. Discolouration throughout, areas of very light surface rust probably from a storage environment.

Created: Tue, 12th August 2025 13:21