

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wed, 13th August 2025 / Lot 4113

LOT 4113

A mid-19th century muzzle-loading double-barrelled percussion sporting gun by Trulock & Son, 9 Dawson St, Dublin, with nipple-sighted steel barrels, barrel length 76cm, foliate engraved locks, hammers and trigger guard, full-stocked with brass-tipped wood ramrod (full and half-lock mechanisms work, some damage to mouths of hammers).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

4113 - Barrels overall patinated and dirty. No visual dents or damage. Cannot provide internal condition. One or two areas of old corrosion.

Created: Wed, 13th August 2025 10:31