LOT 1175

A pair of Chinese famille rose porcelain teabowls and covers/stands, mark of Daoguang but probably later, each painted and gilt with two figures and panels of black text, iron red enamelled seal mark to bases, diameter 10.5cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

Both bowls and covers in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to enamels and gilding but decoration otherwise good, bright and vibrant.

One cover with 2 small glazed over chips to rim as a result of the manufacturing process, not subsequent damage.
