LOT 1863

A set of four Art Deco style Nesdam glass and chrome wall lights, mid 20th century, each formed from a frosted peach tinted glass shade of fan shape moulded with a female nude, held within a chrome fitting, the glass shades marked 'PATENT APPLIED FOR', shades 21cm high.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

The glass sections are fundamentally each in good condition. Each has some very minor nicks/chips to the edges primarily where they fit into the holders, but these are negligible and only really noticeable on very close inspection. They do not detract from the shades in any way.

The holders are each rusty to varying degrees and also have wear, degradation and peeling to the surfaces in varying degrees. Please view the images on our website using the zoom function.

The shades are quite a tricky fit into the holders and don't feel particularly secure.

The lights would need professional re-wiring.
