

Glassware / Thu, 25th September 2025 / Lot 1879

LOT 1879

A Bohemian ruby flashed and engraved glass goblet and cover, circa 1900, the U-shaped bowl engraved with a rectangular panel of deer by a river opposing a circular lens, raised on a centrally knopped stem and scalloped edge circular foot, detailed overall with foliate scrollwork, the similarly decorated cover with pointed finial, height 35cm, together with three smaller amber flashed and engraved goblets and two covers, similarly decorated with stags (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

First amber cover with small chip to outer edge, other cover ok.

First amber goblet with approx 1cm square chip to edge of foot and similar chip to top edge of rim, second amber goblet ok, third amber goblet broken through stem with glued repair and chip to top rim edge.

Red goblet and cover with small chip to outer edge of foot, otherwise in good condition.

Created: Wed, 17th September 2025 14:37