

Glassware / Thu, 25th September 2025 / Lot 1867

LOT 1867

Two opaque twist stem wine glasses, circa 1770, the first with pointed rounded funnel bowl above a plain stem with a pair of multi-ply spiral bands outside four spiral threads, the second with ogee bowl above a plain stem with an outlined lace twist, both with conical feet, 15cm high, together with a double series opaque twist stem soda glass and two later twist stem glasses with coloured thread details, tallest 18.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Funnel bowl opaque twist - ok.

Ogee bowl opaque twist - scratch to bowl otherwise ok.

Soda glass - ok.

Blue twist - base heavily scratched.

Red twist - scratching to bowl and foot, otherwise ok.

Created: Thu, 18th September 2025 15:45