

Glassware / Thu, 25th September 2025 / Lot 1860

LOT 1860

A facet cut sweetmeat glass, late 18th Century, the bowl cut with diamonds and triangles beneath the scalloped rim, raised on a centrally knopped faceted stem and scalloped edge domed foot cut with oval facets, height 15.3cm, together with a small group of other glasses and glass items, including a 20th century wine engraved with an oval panel titled 'Sunderland Bridge', height 20cm, a small glass commemorating a colliery disaster, a Heppell pressed glass coal wagon sugar bowl and three Scottish paperweights, comprising a close packed millefiori example, diameter approx 6cm, a patterned millefiori example, diameter approx 4cm, and a Perthshire blue ground floral example, dated 2000, diameter approx 5.5cm (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A PARTIAL CONDITION REPORT ON THIS LOT JUST DETAILING THE TWO PIECES BELOW;

Sunderland Bridge glass - in good condition overall with no damage or repairs, this is a 20th century example.
Colliery Disaster glass - in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

Created: Mon, 22nd September 2025 09:32