

Glassware / Thu, 25th September 2025 / Lot 1812

LOT 1812

A Louis Leloup studio glass vase, circa 1990, the frosted body of abstract fan shape, internally decorated with fused purple, white and yellow beneath a relief rim, engraved signature to base with applied paper label, length 33cm.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

To the widest part of the bulbous base on one side there is an approx 1cm long narrow fairly deep manufacturing flaw which appears as a scratch. Otherwise in good condition overall with other typical light surface scratches commensurate with handling and display.

Created: Tue, 23rd September 2025 11:06