

Glassware / Thu, 25th September 2025 / Lot 1825

LOT 1825

A novelty clear glass gin pig decanter, early 20th century, blown in the form of an animal with long tail forming the handle, length 23.5cm, another example (lacking handle) and a similar novelty clear glass decanter in the form of a seated boar, height 18cm, together with a pair of engraved wine glasses, the bowls decorated with insects amidst ears of corn beneath a band of hops to the rim, raised on moulded stems and circular feet, height 19cm.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

First gin pig with long snout - in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

Second gin pig with short snout - lacking handle.

Boar - missing end of tail, otherwise ok.

Pair of glasses - both in good condition.

Created: Tue, 23rd September 2025 12:10