

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th September 2025 / Lot 1651

LOT 1651

A pair of Derby porcelain baskets, circa 1765-70, of 'spectacle' type, the oval bodies painted in blue to the base interiors with a chinoiserie landscape design, the trellis work sides with blue line detail to the interior and an applied flowerhead to each intersection on the exterior, the twisted loop handles with applied foliate terminals, patch marks to bases, both 23cm long (minor faults).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

Both in fundamentally good condition with no restoration or chips. There are some minor firing cracks and one has a small haircrack to the piercing on one section of its rim.
