

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th September 2025 / Lot 1566

LOT 1566

A small mixed group of English porcelain, mostly late 18th century, including a Worcester Three Flower pattern teabowl, hatched crescent mark to base, diameter 7.8cm, a similar Fence pattern teabowl, sugar bowl, diameter 12cm, and circular bowl, diameter 17cm, a sparrow beak jug enamelled with scattered flowers and insects beneath an iron red and gilt inner rim, height 8.5cm, a Gilliflower pattern coffee pot of fluted pear shape, a New Hall slop bowl, pattern No. 208, diameter 15.5cm, and a pair of New Hall teabowls and saucers (faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Sparrow beak jug - 3cm vertical crack to rim.

Fence teabowl - cracked.

One New Hall saucer with minor horizontal hairline approx 2cm long.

Coffee pot - replacement metal and wicker handle, couple of small chips and indistinct hairline to cover.

Fence bowl - scratches to base interior, otherwise ok.

New Hall bowl - small starcrack to base, scratches to base interior.

Larger Fence bowl - ok with scratches to base interior.

Single handled quatre lobe dish - quite worn, small chip.

2 square dishes - one chipped and cracked, other with small chip.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition.

Created: Tue, 23rd September 2025 15:25