

Glassware / Thu, 25th September 2025 / Lot 1872

LOT 1872

An unusual gilt metal mounted Kralik iridescent glass vase, early 20th century, the tapered green/yellow body with moulded textured surface, mounted with three vertical stylized iris flowers between the mounted rim and foot, glass unmarked, impressed mark to underside of mounted foot, height 21.5cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no repairs or significant damage.

The mounts have typical rubbing/wear to the high points and edges and one has a horizontal crack to the uppermost petal just beneath where it joins the neck rim collar.

Created: Wed, 24th September 2025 10:03