

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Thursday, 9th October 2025 / Lot 2348

LOT 2348

A late 19th/early 20th century Arts and Crafts Guild of Handicrafts copper table lamp, designed by Charles Robert Ashbee, the later fitted domed shade above three shaped supports and a circular base, height 43cm. Note: the lamp comes with a printed exhibition card stating that it was lent to the exhibition by the Ashbee family.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2348. As mentioned on the exhibition label and catalogue description, the shade is a later replacement. Otherwise, the lamp is generally in good order, with also a replaced light fitting. The surface has some areas of uneven patina, but no signs of damage or repair.

Created: Tue, 30th September 2025 15:34