LOT 2330

An Edwardian Arts and Crafts Guild of Handicrafts silver mustard pot, designed by Charles Robert Ashbee, the hinged lid with a globular finial inset with a red cabochon, the flared body with twin loop handle, London 1902, height 9.5cm, together with a later made matching spoon by the Guild of Handicrafts, London 2000.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,800

Condition Report

2330. The hinge on the lid is a little loose and there is a very minor dent to the bottom edge of the base, but otherwise in good order.

The lid has a part mark for the same year as the base.
